

Financial Controller

About the role

So, you don't need to be an Autistic Savant, but if you can see the world in numbers it sure would help. Our client is looking for a Financial Controller to help them makes sense of all the stuff in the universe that confuses the rest of us.

You don't need to speak 9 languages, you don't even need to create your own - but if you see the number 15 as a yellow, lumpy and round then you've got the skills we need.

You will be:

- ✓ Responsible for the overall financial health of the company
- ✓ Coordinating and directing the preparation of the budget and financial forecasts
- ✓ Preparing and publishing timely monthly financial statements
- ✓ Manage and comply with local regulations and present regular reports to the Board

You will need to have:

- ✓ Proven working experience as a Financial Controller or similar
- ✓ 5+ years of commercial accounting and financial experience
- ✓ Chartered Accountant or Certified Professional Accountancy qualifications
- ✓ Must be able to manage multiple currencies
- ✓ Strong financial reporting skills
- ✓ Excellent knowledge and understanding of corporate compliance
- ✓ Able to understand various accounting and inventory systems (high computer literacy)
- ✓ Experienced in setting up accounting processes, controls and reconciliations

Someone with practical working experience and focus, with a sense of humour second only to their sense of duty.
If this sounds like you, get in touch with us today.

What you can expect

A negotiated salary package above $100,000 and a stable, supportive environment working with a great team of professionals in a nationwide growing company.

This is a great opportunity for someone looking to build on their career with a very rewarding company who like to up-skill and promote within their business.
